NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMPLETE. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. OUR GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACE FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTERS IF TAKEN. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE RACE IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO VISIT EVERY NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

COMMISSIONERS AND SHERIFFS.

We learn that, in some of the counties, some of the Commissioners have not qualified, and others have not been appointed by "Gov." Holden, to fill the vacancy. In other counties, no Justices of the Peace have yet been appointed by the "Governor." Iredell, Catawba, and other counties, we understand, are among the number which have no magistrates. Why is this? The 15th of October is approaching, when the Registration must commence. The Registrars, according to the law, must be Justices of the Peace. If the "Governor" delays appointing magistrates, the ends of the law will be defeated.

Can any good reason be given why magistrates are not appointed in all the counties? Surely "Gov." Holden cannot design, by this, to let the elections in those counties go by default? So gross a dereliction of duty we cannot suppose, still we learn that the people of those counties are becoming restive under the delay of the Executive. Cannot "loyal" men enough be found in these counties to serve as Justices of the Peace?

We would suggest to the people of the counties, where no magistrates have been appointed, to hold meetings and suggest suitable men, such as would be acceptable, and call upon the Executive to appoint Justices for their several counties.

LEGISLATIVE VACANCIES.

There are a number of vacancies, both in the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly of this State, created by the action of each House, declaring the seats of sundry Senators and Representatives vacant, for the alleged reason that they were banned by the Howard Amendment. The seat of L. D. Hall, of Sampson, was vacated by death. If writs of election have been issued for filling these vacancies, we have not heard of it. We append a list of the vacancies, as far as we now recollect them:

SENATE.

12th.	Senatorial Dist.,	W. A. Allen.
16th	"	"	L. D. Hall, dec'd.
23d	"	"	Josiah Turner, Jr.
24th	"	"	Bedford Brown.
41st	"	"	Ed. W. Jones.

HOUSE.

Caldwell, Jas. C. Harper.
Duplin, Isaac B. Kelly.
Harnett, Neill S. Stuart.
Clay, John O. Hicks.
Jackson, Joseph Keener.

The impression has prevailed that the elections to fill these vacancies would be ordered to take place on the 3rd of November, but we have not heard of the order to that effect. Is it not time it was done?

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.

The Radical party has shown itself utterly incompetent to conduct the government, and, at the same time, protect the rights and liberties of the people, and preserve the credit of the government, without financial ruin to the tax payers. The evidence is now palpable, that, since the close of the war, although there is not a man in the South in hostility to the government, not one who does not submit to the laws, except such as are abandoned to crime, the expenses of the government are kept up at a war footing. Not less than $1,500,000,000 have actually been collected by taxation, and, instead of the large National debt being diminished, it has been and is being increased.

The attempts of Radical financiers to bolster up their party are utterly futile, and their misrepresentations are exploded the moment the test of truth is applied to them. A fair exposition of the real state of the finances drives to the wall all the calculations of Mr. Wells and others, gotten up to cover the facts and conceal from the public view their actual condition.

Recently, several prominent gentlemen of New York, deeply interested in the financial condition of the Country, Messrs. Grinnell, Phelps and Hunt, addressed a letter to Mr. Alex. Delmar, the Director of the Bureau of Statistics, than whom no man has access to more correct information, making such enquiries as would draw from him the statistics desired by the public. Mr. Delmar has replied fully to the queries propounded, and his letter we find in our Northern exchanges. We regret that its length precludes its publication in our columns. This letter has spread alarm in the Radical ranks. We have just room for the following compilation from the letter:

The paper shows that the treasury is involved in the current year's finances, and will need to borrow a very large sum to complete its engagements up to next June. Mr. Delmar estimates the deficiency at $154,339,202.25, without reckoning the needs of the post office, or the as matured claims which have been deferred. This deficit will, at the end of the fiscal year, be an addition to the present amount of the public debt, a result against which Congress was warned by the Secretary of the Treasury, whose letter Mr. Delmar quotes. According to the Treasury estimates presented to Congress, the expenditures of this fiscal year, if none are deferred, will amount to $475,959,202 23, as follows:

Ordinary expenditures, 1868-'9	$438,317,183 65
Alaska, 1868-'9	7,200,000 00
Private appropriations 1868-'9	383,659 91
Deficiencies, 1867-'8	19,275,746 97
Principal of loans, 1867-'8—1868-'9	8,982,611 80
Treasurer's exp., 1868-'9, estimated	42,000 0 0.00
Total	$475,959,202.23

Without including the Post Office deficiency, which will amount to $6,100,000.

ESTIMATED REVENUE OF THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR.

To meet the $475,959,202.23 of expenditures for 1868-'9, we shall (Mr. Delmar says) give the following receipts:

Register's Receipts.
Customs	$170,000,000
Public Lands	1,000,000
Direct Tax	1,500,000
Miscellaneous (excluding gold premium)	5,000,000
	$179,000,000
Treasurer's Receipts	42,000,000
Total	$221,000,000

Thus if the Treasury endeavors to meet its current expenditures this year, (to say nothing of matured claims deferred, or of the post office deficiency,) it will show a deficit of $154,339,202 25 at the end of the year, to be obtained from increased taxes or loans!

Mr. Delmar closes his lengthy exhibit with the following remarks:

"The reconstruction measures and tenure-of-office law are the main causes of all the extravagant expenditures which, under economical management, I think could be diminished within a year $200,000,000 per annum, including gold interest on the public debt. Without a total change of policy, however, such retrenchment is impossible. A continuance of present measures means a continued heavy expenditure, and this can only be met by increasing the public debt."

"SPECIMEN BRICKS,"—WHAT THEY SAY OF EACH OTHER.

A gentleman, who heard a discussion, a few days since, between "Judge" Tourgee and "Windy Billy" Henderson, the bolting and regular Radical candidates for Congress in the Fifth District, describes it as exceeding, in personal vituperation and billingsgate, anything which he ever heard on the stump before. It may be amusing, if not profitable, to hear what these specimen bricks of carpet-bagism and scalawagery, respectively, in North Carolina, have to say of each other.

We learn that Tourgee charged Henderson with having stolen the law-books of the late Benj. Kittrell, of Lexington; with having forged a note on the old Branch Bank of Cape Fear at Salem; and, also, with the mule business.

In reply, Billy accused Tourgee of having been assaulted by a negro, and ejected from a tenement which he had rented, and for which he had failed to pay, and with disgracing the bench of North Carolina by partisan exhibitions and personal depravity!

And of such is Radicalism! There is an old adage that when "rogues fall out, honest men get their dues!"

MASS MEETING AND BARBECUE IN CABARRUS.

The various Seymour and Blair Clubs of Cabarrus purpose having a large Mass Meeting and Barbecue, in Concord, on the 15th inst.

Gov. Graham, Hon. William N. H. Smith, F. F. Duffy, Esq. and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe, have notified their acceptance of invitations to be present.

The occasion will doubtless be a grand and imposing one.

A Kentuckian was poisoned the other day by chewing bark which he mistook for slippery elm. Prentice says he "barked up the wrong tree."

THE LOOKOUT!

We have been greatly gratified to see, within a week past, the cheering and confident tone of the Northern Democratic Press. Important and numerous changes are recorded in the States of Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, and the Democrats and Conservatives of those great States are working with an energy and enthusiasm that presage success on the 13th of October.

The whole country awaits the results of these State elections with profound interest and anxiety. If any two of them shall vote with the Democracy, no power on earth can prevent the triumphant election of Seymour and Blair in November. We have the strongest hopes of success in all of those great States.

While the Democratic press is thus buoyant and sanguine, it is evident, by the frantic and desperate appeals of Radical journals and leaders, coupled with their idle bravado, that they are quaking in their shoes, and are terribly apprehensive as to the result. Well may they be!

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Contreville Club in Halifax Co., at a late meeting, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the article in a late number of the Raleigh Standard, reflecting on the virtue of the women of the State, we pronounce to be false in every sense, and we pledge ourselves that such sentiments shall never be uttered in this county, and go unpunished.

About thirty-five Swiss immigrants, consisting of men, women, girls and boys, imported from Switzerland, by Messrs Thomas and W. F. Atkinson, of Wayne county, arrived at Goldsboro, on Tuesday. They went to the farms of the Messrs. Atkinson, about ten miles from Goldsboro, where they will be settled. The Dough Notes says: "It has been our luck to see many immigrants, as they arrive in New York and Baltimore, but we have never met a more sober, intelligent and healthy set than those which arrived here on yesterday."

The Wilmington Star suggests the propriety of holding an indignation meeting, irrespective of party, in that City, to declare the unqualified abhorrence felt by all decent men for the brutal article which lately appeared in the Radical organ here.

Maj Jno. W. Graham, we are glad to see, is announced as a candidate for the State Senate in Orange, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the Hon. Josiah Turner being declared ineligible.

The County Commissioners of Craven have appointed Inspectors of election for the various precincts in the County. Two Conservatives, two Radicals and two negroes have been appointed for each precinct. The Journal of Commerce says that this is more just than was generally expected.

The Fayetteville Eagle is hard on "my son Oliver". It says that Col. O. H. Dockery, in a speech at Carthage, in 1866, said:

"I will never ask the negro to vote for me. I am no favorite of his. I have struck him too many hard licks; and if the negro ever has the right to vote in North Carolina, I

Seymour and Blair in Cherokee.

Messrs. Editors:—Yesterday was a glorious day for old Cherokee. True, it rained heavily during the whole forenoon, but our people had heard that our Senator, who had stood up so manfully between us and despotism, in the late General Assembly, would address us; and long before noon the town was crowded. Just after 12 o'clock, Dr. Love took the stand. This was in our new Court House,—the old having been burned down during the war by "loil" men. As this was the first political effort in the new building, it was regarded as a "christening of the edifice. And a glorious christening it was! The Dr., on taking the stand, looked and acted like one conscious of being in the right. He began by saying, he was here to render an account of his stewardship in the Senate, and that, in so doing, he would necessarily have to allude to party; that he had no war to make on the mere voters in the Republican ranks, but should direct his attacks to the leaders of that party, who were carrying the country to ruin and bankruptcy.

For two hours, the immense audience stood as if spell bound, listening to Dr. Love's account of "eight weeks in the Senate," and his exposure of Radical rule, State and Federal. The exposure was plain and irrefutable. The wasteful extravagance of the party in power astounded our people, while Dr. Love's scathing denunciations of these purloiners fired his audience with indignation.

But a short letter cannot do his speech justice. It was a complete success. It has done much good. Many persons, to day, who were yesterday Radicals, say they are done with the corrupt party and are openly now for Seymour and Blair.

Dr. Love was followed by our Representative, Simons, (a Radical,) in a speech just four minutes long, and he by Col. A. T. Davidson, on Railroads and national politics. The Col. was sick and made only a short, but telling speech, for us, as he always does, when he gets a chance. P.

OLD CABARRUS FOREVER!

A meeting was held at "Coddle Creek," in this County, on Saturday last, the 26th, inst. Some three hundred white men and four hundred negroes were assembled—but one white scallawag on the ground. Jos. William Holden made his appearance, according to appointment, and delivered himself. Maj. W. J. Montgomery, of this place, replied to him and wore him completely out. W. M. Robins, of Salisbury, followed, paying special respects to Hon. Nat. Boyden and giving him a skinning. Mr. Boyden, however, was not present.

Seymour and Blair and F. E. Shober will get every white vote present, except ONE Boyden is as flat as a flounder, in Cabarrus.

The Radicals will have to send out a stronger team than Jos. William, Dick Wynne, Coleman and Pont. Taylord, if they expect to effect anything in this county.—Our white men are all right. M.

CABARRUS Co., Sept. 29.

THE CONTEST IN PENNSYLVANIA.—We repeat what we stated in our issue of yesterday, that our intelligence from Pennsylvania is of the most cheering character.—There is no variation in the accounts that reach us from our friends there, and they warrant the expectation that on the 13th of October next the Conservatives will achieve a signal and overwhelming triumph.—*N. RESPONSES TO INVITATIONS TO THE DEMOCRATIC MASS CONVENTION AT INDIANAPOLIS—LETTERS FROM DISTINGUISHED OFFICERS.

The Indianapolis Sentinel of the 25th contains letters addressed to the Committee of invitation by Gen. D. C. Buell, Gen. W. S. Rosecrans, Gen. W. B. Franklin, Gen. W. F. Smith, Gen. W. T. H. Brooks, Gen. A. Sanders Piatt, Gen. John J. Peck, Gen. G. W. Morgan, Gen. McClernand, Gen. H. W. Slocum, and Gen. Durbin Ward. As fair specimens of all these letters, we copy the following:

FROM GEN. BUELL.

AIRDRIE, KY., Sept. 15.

General J An Love, Chairman Executive Committee, Indianapolis, Ind.:

MY DEAR SIR:—My engagements will not permit me to accept your invitation to attend the Democratic Mass Convention to be held at Indianapolis on the 23rd instant; but I am interested in its object and shall rejoice in its success.

Eight years ago the Republican and Democratic parties contended for the administration of the Government in the election of a President. The first, organized solely upon sectional issues, appealed for support to passion and sectional prejudice. Its leaders taught that a dissolution of the Union was preferable to conditions which the Constitution had established, and pledged themselves to hold no intercourse in society, business or politics, with the principal class of citizens in the opposite section—an attitude which could mean nothing but disunion or sectional war. In its public demonstrations it initiated a military organization, and with threatening motives, beating drums, and warlike tread, it filled the air with the premonitory mutterings of a battle-field.

Opposed to this revolutionary spirit stood the great Democratic party, which for an almost entire period of sixty years had administered the government with a wisdom and fidelity which were attested by the general welfare. Unfortunately, the sectional passions which had been aroused, disturbed its councils and divided its strength; and its opponent, representing a minority of the people, triumphed at the polls. War came. The North and South were arrayed in deadly conflict against each other; but it was not among the mass of the Democratic party that the idea of dissolution was entertained, for while more than one faltered of those in the opposite party who helped to stir up the strife, thousands of Democrats instantly rushed to arms to preserve the Union and maintain the laws.

It would be useless to revive these memories at this time for the purpose of meting out in just proportions the responsibility of the conflict which ended nearly four years ago, but in tracing the causes and devising a remedy for the evils which now oppress the nation, they are full of lessons. To-day these parties again stand opposed to each other in a Presidential canvass. The characteristics which distinguished them eight years ago, are even more marked now. The one arrogant, despotic, revolutionary; reckless of constitutional restrictions, of the respective prerogatives of the different branches of the Government, of the rights of the States, and the liberties of the people; still by profligacy and wrong augmenting a public debt, already enormous, and increasing the burden upon industry and trade by unnecessary and unequal taxation—the other, faithful as always to the theory of our Government and the true interests of the people, stands forth to rescue, revive authority. If there is anything in our past history worth cherishing, if it is true that the liberties of a people are safer under inviolate constitutional rules than under the arbitrary dictation of any Government, still more under an unlimited power, aggregated by one branch of it, then the people of this country cannot too soon decree a change in the present management of its affairs. A return to the support of Democratic principles, by those whose influences, which it is unnecessary here to describe, have reduced into an unnatural political association with the Radical party, will effect this great object in November; and I trust that the strength and enthusiasm of your Convention will add another to the many encouraging indications that such will be the result.

With great respect, your obedient servant,
D. C. BUELL.

FROM GENERAL ROSECRANS.

ST. MARTIN, BROWN COUNTY, OHIO, September 21st, 1868.

Gen. Jno. Love, Indianapolis, Ind:

GENERAL:—Indispensable duties prevent me from attending the gathering of officers and soldiers at Indianapolis, to which your letter invited me on the 23d inst.

But beyond the great gratification I should experience in meeting so many of my old companions in arms, and mingling our memories of the past with resolutions of future efforts and sacrifices for the honor of the land and flag we love, my presence there would accomplish little more than a simple statement of my views on the chief issues which now agitate the country.

I believe our free institutions and highest material interests are in grave peril. I shall therefore perform a solemn and responsible duty to my fellow soldiers and countrymen, who love this nation more than party, by stating what I think the most vital issues before the public in the approaching Presidential election.

Above all other questions—expenditures, taxation, bonds, "greenbacks," or anything else—stands that of restoring the people of the Southern States to hopeful, cheerful self-government.

Restore them this, and as certainly as day follows the sun our political stability will be assured; our financial prosperity will speedily follow; the value of property in the South will increase; our public securities will go to a premium; our greenbacks will become par; coin and currency accounts, with all their evils and complications, will disappear from the books of our business men.

Believing, with all my soul, that the preservation of our Government from despotic changes, and all these inestimable blessings, depend upon this restoration of the Southern people to wholesome, cheerful self-government, I am equally certain that it can be done, and dare pledge my honor and life for them that they will give and observe all proper guarantees to renounce secession, slavery, and their dependent issues; to protect, educate and elevate the freedmen to the exercise of all the franchise they enjoy in Ohio, Indiana or Illinois; and faithfully to perform all the duties incumbent on them as good citizens under the Constitution and laws of the United States.

And what more could be asked of them, or what greater results could patriotism desire for the country, than depend upon this issue?

Not even the prosecution of the war challenged a more thorough renunciation of party preferences and personal dislikes on the altar of our country than does the attainment of this great good.

The desolate and ruined South, the oppressed tax payers of the West and North, generosity, mercy, love of country, apprehensions of evils to come, every motive that ought to move the hearts of true and noble men, appeal to us to say by our votes we will stop that hopeless folly of attempting to govern the Southern States by what we call "loyal blacks," and give the people, under just guarantees, the right, peacefully and legally, to proceed to reorganize their own government within the Union.

With such convictions, I hold the man who would not express and act upon them a traitor to himself and his country, and despise the partisan who would find fault with any reasonable steps he might take to bring about so great a good to the nation.

Commending my convictions, and the reasons for them, to the judgment of my fellow soldiers and countrymen, I remain,

Very truly yours,
W. S. ROSECRANS.

FROM GENERAL WM. B. FRANKLIN.

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 17.

MY DEAR GENERAL:—I have received your note of the 7th. inst., inviting me to join the "Union White Boys in Blue" of Indiana, in the grand mass Convention to be held in Indianapolis, on the 23rd. inst. I regret that other engagements will prevent my acceptance of the invitation. I regret it more especially because your organization is one of the few which prove that the soldiers and sailors of the war were Democrats as well as Radicals. Had such organizations been formed and encouraged in all the States, I do not doubt that it would appear that a majority of the Union soldiers and sailors now living belong to the Democratic party, or do not belong to the Radical party.

I congratulate you upon the cheering prospects in your gallant State; and am

Truly, your friend,
W. B. FRANKLIN.

Gen. JNO. LOVE, Indianapolis, Ind.

FROM GEN. WM. F. (BALDY) SMITH.

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 8.

Gen. John Love:

DEAR SIR:—I am to day in receipt of your letter of the 4th inst., asking me to join you in a grand mass convention to be held in Indianapolis on the 23d instant. I thank you and the rest of the "White Boys in Blue," for counting me as one of you, and possibly the 19th Indiana may be represented by some men who may remember me kindly. I regret very much that my private business, and other engagements, will keep me from being with you in what I hope will be a demonstration so overwhelming as to beat down arrogance in high places and crush tyranny.

All the White Boys in Blue look to Indiana to place herself right on the record at the November election. Yours truly, WM. F. SMITH.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.
In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy,	No.	15 273	$5.000
" "	"	10 818	5.000
" "	"	18,6/7	5.000
" "	"	24,692	3 000

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1868.

REGISTER! REGISTER!

1. Don't forget to Register. Every man must Register or he can not vote. If you registered before it will not answer unless you register now.

2. Registrars will register names between the 15th of October, till and including the day of election, on the 3rd of November.

3. Registrars must give notice of the times and the places when they will register, and should not register at other times. No improper voter can be challenged except when he proposes to register; hence, the people should know when and where the registration takes place.

4. The Seymour and Blair Clubs must be sure to have proper persons at the Registrar's tables to challenge improper voters at all times. See to this.

5. There is no election in Virginia on the 3rd of November. We learn that negroes are being brought from Virginia into our border counties, on the pretence of working, but really for the purpose of registering and voting at our elections. Remember, no man has a right to register or to vote in this State unless he has been in the State one year before the election, and in the county, where he registers, thirty days before the election.

6. We beg our exchanges, public speakers, and friends generally, to have the people fully informed on the above subjects.

7. Tickets! Be sure to have every precinct well supplied with tickets. The names of candidates for Electors, &c., should be written or printed in full. Every County must order their own tickets in time.

New Advertisement.—Davis, Roper & Co., Grocers and Commission Merchants, No. 5 Iron Front, Petersburg, Va.: An excellent and reliable Firm. They solicit consignments of Cotton and other Produce and make cash advances on the same, when desired. Our farmers may rely upon their perfect fidelity and responsibility.

Selling out at cost: W. Robert Andrews, Fayetteville Street. Everything in the Heavy and Fancy Grocery line, except Liquors, sold at cost. Now is the time to get bargains.

Corn and Flour low, to close consignments: W. H. Jones & Co., Auction and Commission Merchants.

Pay Your City Taxes: James Litchford, Collector.

Western and Middle Wards.—Our friends in these two Wards, by a combined movement, we are pleased to learn, will take immediate steps to build a Club room, raise a pole, &c. This is right. Go ahead! A joint meeting, looking to the object in view, will be held in the Court House on Monday night.

Temperance Lecture.—A Lecture will be delivered this (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock, before Crescent Council, F. of T., by the Rev. H. T. Hudson, at the Temperance Hall, (Masonic Building.) The public are respectfully invited to attend.

Discussion at Barney Jones'.—By invitation of the Seymour and Blair Club, M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., and Col. Geo. H. Faribault, went up, on Wednesday, to address the people of this District. A large assemblage were present, of both colors,—and not a white Radical on the ground, except Dr. Banks, Pilgrim Ashley and Whitson. These latter having come up, just after Mr. Bledsoe took the stand, they were promptly invited to join in the discussion. A discussion accordingly ensued, (Ashley only making a few remarks, however, with reference to the Public Schools,) and we learn that Mr. Bledsoe flayed Banks and Whitson most thoroughly—particularly skinning Whitson alive, and giving him grease enough for his "collards" for life time. He exposed Whitson's ignorance so completely as to excite shouts of laughter at his expense. We are assured that it was a great day for Seymour and Blair, that the white men of that section are a unit, and that a number of negroes will also vote the Democratic ticket.

By agreement, there will be a public discussion at Holly Springs, on Tuesday. Mr. Bledsoe, and perhaps other Democratic Speakers, will be there. Let the people turn out!

One of Vance's Best.—A few nights since, in Salisbury, when Vance was addressing a large and enthusiastic audience, some scallawag suddenly and maliciously turned off the gas. Almost any one but Vance would have been flustered by the circumstance. Not not he. He at once cried out, in the midst of the darkness: "Heroes of America! Come to order!" This created shouts of applause and laughter, in the midst of which a stray dog, astonished at the uproar, set up a howl. "Turn that scallawag out!" said Vance; and the merriment grew "fast and furious." The lights were soon restored and Vance resumed.

Veto Sustained.—Gov. Warmouth's veto of the negro equality bill has been sustained by the Legislature of Louisiana, by a tie vote.

At Clermont, Indiana, on Friday night the Radicals attacked a Democratic torch-light procession because it passed under a Grant and Colfax Club. We are happy to add that the Radicals were beaten badly.

THE EASTERN WARD RALLY!

Our gallant friends of the Eastern Ward are working with a zeal and a determination worthy of all emulation and admiration. They are a noble set of patriots.

The grand rally, on Wednesday night, was the most inspiring meeting of the campaign, so far. The Club Room had been newly decorated for the occasion, by the ladies, with fresh floral wreaths and evergreens, and presented a beautiful appearance.

At the appointed hour, between six and eight hundred persons from all parts of the City had assembled,—at least two hundred of whom were ladies,—all animated by a spirit of patriotic enthusiasm.

After the organization of the meeting, three sweet little girls, (Julia Ross, Mary Ross and Eliza Sledge,) charmingly dressed, entered the Hall and advanced to the platform, bearing the beautiful National Banner, inscribed with the names of our candidates, which had been made by ladies of the Ward for presentation to the Club.—This Flag is really exquisite in workmanship and reflects great credit upon the fair donors.

Seaton Gales, Esq., who had been solicited, by the ladies of the Ward, to present the Banner in their names, came forward and said:

Ladies and Gentlemen:—With that charming patriotism, which has been one of the eminent characteristics of the sex, in all ages and in every land, the ladies of this portion of the City of Raleigh have made, with their own fair hands, this beautiful Flag, which they desire to present to the Seymour and Blair Club of the Eastern Ward, as a token of their fealty to the great cause of Peace and Constitutional Liberty in which we are engaged. I have been charged with the grateful duty of tendering it to the acceptance of the Club, and I esteem it a high honor and a happy privilege, to have been selected as the medium of so pleasing a communication, from such a source to such an organization.

It may be assumed as an axiom in morals, in social relations, and in politics, that that cause is intrinsically right, which commands the allegiance of woman! All history illustrates the truth of the assertion, and its pages gleam and glisten, like a radiant mirror, with the light of her beneficent influence over men, and nations and parties. Men arrive at their convictions of duty by a slow process of reasoning, in which policy too often warps the sound conclusions of judgment; but woman's apprehension of the Right is intuitive and instantaneous. And ah! it confirms our faith in the justice of our cause—it strengthens our belief that its triumph is necessary to the salvation of the Republic and the perpetuity of free institutions—it increases our ardor and gives additional stimulus to our efforts,—it renerves our arms and revivigorates our very natures,—to know, that, although mercenary and depraved men may sell themselves for pelf and place, may deny their race and repel the promptings of honorable instinct, may barter the honest world's esteem for the sordid crumbs that fall in the dirt from the tables of power, the women of the land, with barely an exception, are true and loyal to the great issues of the hour. This wide country over, wherever the beatings of the great popular heart are heard in this mighty impending struggle, delicate and fairy fingers are weaving the names of the glorious representatives of our cause upon the Flag of the Union, and committing the proud guerdon to the true men of the land, with the injunction to bear themselves worthy of the sacred trust. It may almost be said, without straining the language of metaphor, that every breeze, from those which sweep over the Northern lakes to that which stirs the bosom of the Southern gulf, is laden with these emblems of female sympathy and devotion. When this one shall have been added to the glittering array, and elevated to its home in the air, there will be new inspiration and fresh hope in the sight of its brilliant folds and star gemmed baldric!

What is it, that invests the Flag of the Union with its expressiveness, and gives it its hold upon the affections of the people? Unless as the representative of great sentiments and principles, it is but a piece of colored bunting,—no more than any other painted canvass which may flutter to the breeze. But, as the adopted symbol of our fathers, to illustrate a Union of sovereign States and a galaxy of co equal stars,—as associated, in the recollections and glories of the past, with the idea of a beneficent government and a protecting Constitution,—we yield it our allegiance and our admiration. Four years of bloody war, under a different banner, have not been sufficient to divest our ancient pride in it,—or, rather, in the glorious types which it conveyed of old. As the emblem of an equal Nationality and of the Union of our fathers, we look upon it still with the same emotions as when it floated in triumph over the fields of New Orleans or Buena Vista. It is only when it is impiously claimed as the symbol of a government, which seeks the oppression of one section and defies the Constitution in lawless strides after unauthorized power, that our vision becomes obscured as to the stars which crowd its azure field, and can only see the stripes which emblazon our humiliation! By the blessing of God, we hope, in this great conflict, to fix its starry dyes in such lasting hues, that no efforts of malice, hate or fanatic rage can ever efface them! We strive to make it the proud, perpetual, everlasting emblem of Civil Liberty, Constitutional Freedom and Anglo-Saxon Might.

"The dear 'Old Flag' regenerate,
As 'twas in days of yore;
Replace the stars of every State,
Their brilliancy restore;
Then around this Union Flag we'll range,
With patriot hearts we'll swear,
That ruin's wasting rule we'll change,
For Seymour and for Blair!

O'er all our broad and varied land,
We'll join the glorious cause
To make the country, heart and hand,
The 'Union' as it was.
Then fling the glittering Banner out,
And let it float in air,
And swell the patriotic shout
For Seymour and for Blair!"

And now, Sir, take this Flag, and cherish it as a most sacred trust. It will speak to us, whenever and wherever it may toy with the breeze, of the womanly, generous sympathies that have prompted its bestowal. Hallowed and charming memories will cluster within its every fold. And the associations of this hour will inspire our hearts and nerve our arms, in every crisis that involves the honor or the safety of those, who, in entrusting to us this beautiful gift, have constituted us the guardians and defenders of both!

Capt. J. C. Gorman, on behalf of the Club, responded very appropriately, as follows:

Major Gales:—In behalf, sir, of the members of this Club, I accept the beautiful offering which the ladies of the Eastern Ward have delegated you to tender us, and in the name of the Club I desire you to return them our warmest, heartfelt thanks, and to assure them that the patriotism, which prompted them to make this donation to the cause we cherish, is highly appreciated.

We are proud to know, sir, that the party to which we belong, and the great principles which we advocate and maintain, have the endorsement and approval of the ladies of the land. It is an additional incentive to us to press forward with increased zeal in our efforts to defeat Radicalism, and to work with renewed ardor for the election of our great champions—Seymour and Blair.

We shall fondly cherish this memento of woman's approval, and preserve it with holy care. And I know, sir, that you, in common with every patriot in the land, will join with me in the fervent prayer, that this ensign may victoriously float above the grave of the Radical party in the great November struggle, triumphantly proclaiming that it is truly an emblem of liberty, when every son of freedom in the land can proudly say,

"Long may it wave, and every blast defy,
Till Time's last whirlwind sweeps the vaulted sky!"

The Flag was then taken out, and, by the bright light of the moon, hoisted to its lofty elevation on the pole, which had been erected in front of the Club room, amid loud cheers, the firing of cannon, and strains of music.

Eloquent and stirring speeches, as heretofore announced, were made, at the call of the audience, by Messrs. J. Q DeCarteret, C. M. Busbee, Geo. H. Snow, F. H. Busbee, J. J. Litchford and T. M. Hughes.

The enjoyment of the evening was closed by a splendid Balloon ascension, and a display of rockets, which were witnessed by the large assemblage of ladies and gentlemen with eager pleasure.

The Balloon was made, only a few hours before its ascension, by Messrs. J. H. Kirkham and T. T. Fentress—good men and true; and the rockets, firing, &c., were under the auspices of that gallant, working Democrat, Mr. J. Sid. Bryan.

Three times three for the Eastern Ward!

GRAND SEYMOUR AND BLAIR RALLY.

The Seymour and Blair Clubs of Franklin will hold a Mass Meeting in Louisburg, on Saturday, the 10th of October.

Hon. S. H. Rogers, G. H. Wilder, Esq., Col. W. A. Jenkins, Col. W. P. Green and Hon. Jo. Turner are expected to address the people on that occasion.

All, both white and colored, of this and the adjoining Counties, are invited to be present and unite in the effort to save the Constitution and the Union.

Our Ohio Correspondence.

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 26, 1868.

Messrs Pell & Gales:—Since writing my last, we have had very exciting times here with political meetings, of which we have had some fine ones. The Radicals have made strong efforts to get up meetings, but, having no negroes to swell the crowd, they have all turned out complete failures. The lying Radical sheet, which is published in this city, always endeavors to have some excuses for the failures, but they won't do, all the time.

On last Saturday night, a big meeting was advertised, and at the same time a Democratic meeting. The Radicals did not have their's. Why? Because there were only a dozen present, and the speaker excused himself on the plea of being unwell. (Such a small gathering was enough to make any one sick.) The Radical paper, on Monday, said, "on account of the inclemency of the weather, the meeting was small;" but the Democrats had a meeting on the same night, and in the same weather, and out of doors, too, (while the Reds had a large hall,) and an able speaker discussed the issues of the day to a crowd of about 3,000 persons!

No, it was not the weather, but the spirit of the people. They are tired of the arrogance and blackguardism with which the Radical meetings abound; they desire a change; they say they must have a change, and they will have a change. They have been fooled long enough, and now they are tired of a base and "corrupt government." They want the "Union" once more, and they want white men, not negroes, to govern it—while the Radicals want the negroes to rule and control the South, and the "moral ity party" to rule the North, so that they can steal all they want. But that time is over.

The whole North is aroused. Thousands are leaving the sinking vessel and are crowding on board the good ship "Democracy," but it is like the old ship you sometimes hear sung of: "she has landed many thousands and can land as many more." Nearly every Democratic paper you pick up, you see, under the heading of "still they come," a notice of some prominent Republican who has joined heart and soul under the Democratic banner, with Seymour and Blair inscribed. But how often do you hear of a Democrat joining the Radicals? I tell you they are "few and far between." And besides those of prominence, thousands of less note, but who, nevertheless, can vote, are leaving the "rotten party" and joining the Democracy. This Fall they will vote for "equal taxation, Seymour and Blair," and the whole Democratic ticket.

There are plenty of good orators now filling our State with their rousing, cheering speeches, and they are doing much good. We have such men as Pendleton, Pugh, Thurman, Vallandigham, and others too numerous to mention, on the stump, for Seymour and Blair. Senator Doolittle made a fine speech here on last Friday. We had a tremendous meeting. Over 10,000 persons attended, and the fair sex, of which our city can boast of many, graced the occasion with their attendance. He made a fine, impressive speech, amid immense applause. Hon. Senator Thurman, and others, will address the citizens, on next Saturday, and Hon. George H. Pendleton will speak on the 30th. We expect to have glorious times.

The Radical party is resorting to every mean device imaginable to carry the election, but they can't do it. The people hath said it and the people rule in this country.—Every one is aroused, and they intend to exert their utmost, and this Fall you may listen for a glorious report from Ohio, and you will not listen in vain,—for the 3rd. of next November will show that Ohio has cast a heavy majority of her free people's votes for the Union, for Seymour and Blair. There are a great many working men here who will vote, but will not let their left hand know what their right hand does, for they are working for Radicals, and if their employers knew they had voted with the Democratic party, they would discharge them as they have done before; but they will vote Democratic notwithstanding. It is all right for a man here to discharge another for voting the Democratic ticket, but it is a "horrible rebel" outrage, if a man down South discharges a negro for voting the "carpet bag" ticket! A man here has a right to discharge whom he pleases, and for any cause, and I believe the people of the South have, too,—your traitor Holden to the contrary, notwithstanding.

I must close for this time. Hoping success to the "Old North State," and to Democracy generally.

Yours Truly,
J. W.

THE ROSECRANZ MISSION.

The following letter from Hon. William A. Graham, to Gen. Rosecranz, was elicited by the White Sulphur conference:

Hillsboro, N. C., Sept. 14, 1868.

To Gen. W. S. Rosecrans:

Sir.—Admiring the noble spirit of patriotism, peace and good will which dictated your letter to Gen. Lee, at White Sulphur Springs, on the 26th ult., and presuming it might be acceptable to receive answers to the inquiries therein made from a more extended circle of citizens of the Southern States than happened to be convenient for consultation at the time of this correspondence, I beg permission to superadd my testimony in hearty concurrence with the replies of Gen. Lee and his associates on the topics embraced in your communication.

To be more explicit:

1. The surrender of the Southern armies was a real surrender, made in honor and good faith; as has been demonstrated by the fact, patent to all the world, that in three and a half years not a sword has been lifted against the government, nor any plot for resistance to it formed.

2. The claim of a State under the Constitution, to secede from the Union, or to nullify its laws, (never concurred in by a majority of the people of this State,) has been abandoned by those who entertained it, as settled by the decisive arbitrament of arms.

3. African slavery was surrendered up as a result of the war, in perfect sincerity; and there exists no purpose or expectation of its re-establishment.

4. There has been, by general consent, a concession to the emancipated negro, of all the civil rights of white men, and there is no hostile feeling on the part of the white race against the colored; but there are admitted to be mutual interests and dependencies, which would, ere this, have been adjusted upon the ordinary principles which regulate labor and capital in other communities, but for the unwise action of Congress, and the agitations of politicians, for the most part new comers from States of the North and West, operating on the prejudices of the blacks through secret leagues and combinations.

5. The people of the States of the South have an intelligent comprehension of the Constitution of the United States, as written; as expounded in its administration for eighty years; as illustrated in judicial decisions, and as taught in the Commentaries of Kent and Story. To this, they resumed their allegiance after the late unfortunate war, not merely in sincerity, but with a reasonable degree of cheerfulness and hope. And their dissatisfaction and complaint now is not against the Constitution, but that its provisions have not been observed and kept toward them, and that they are openly denied the rights of internal self-government, acknowledged in the Constitution, and proudly and defiantly, but rightfully, claimed and exercised by the people of the States North of the Potomac and the Ohio. Dissatisfaction on these grounds pervades more than four fifths of the white men, comprehending not merely old secessionists and Democrats, but the life long followers of Clay and Webster, the supporters of Harrison, Taylor, Fillmore and Scott, many of whom resisted secession at every hazard until war was begun and there was left to them only a choice of sides, and then, according to their opinion of duty, went with their States and section; others who never abandoned their opposition, but expressed it freely throughout the war; all of whom, without regard to abstract ideas of political power, readily acquiesced in the measures of restoration prescribed by the President in the year 1865, and have ever since been anxious for a return of cordiality and harmony in every region of the Union. They have no power or purpose to attempt redress by force, but they appeal to their fellow citizens everywhere for a restoration of the true covenant of the Constitution—of that equality which, among States as among individuals, is a principle of equity, and which, in our American Union, is incorporated into the Constitution, and made the supreme law of the land.

With these convictions on their minds, they have hailed your intervention in behalf of a solid and lasting tranquility as that of a public benefactor, being themselves thoroughly persuaded that if the just and patriotic men of our several sections could but intercommune and understand each other, reconcilement, harmony and a gradual return to prosperity would be the sure and natural consequences. May Heaven aid your efforts to this good end, and reward you with its choicest blessings!

Believe me, sir, with true respect,
Your obedient servant,
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM.

Seymour and Blair in McDowell and Rutherford.

Dysartsville, Sept. 28.

A large meeting of the citizens of McDowell and Rutherford counties took place at Dysartsville, McDowell county, on Saturday, the 26th inst., and were addressed by Col. J. F. Hoke, who, by invitation, was present. The financial policy of our National and State governments was fully discussed and explained, the extravagance and corruption of the Radical party exposed, and the grievous burdens heaped on the labor of the country pointed out, to the satisfaction of all present. The speaker clearly showed that the landlord and tenant stood in interest on the same ground, whether they were white or black, and that that interest led them to support the Seymour and Blair ticket.

A marked effect was produced on the hearers and a number of Radicals renounced the League. This section is all right, and will roll up in November a majority for the Democratic Candidates.

In one League, which, in the Spring, numbered one hundred and twenty-five, there remain only twenty-five. At another place, where there was a large League, they number only three. From every section of the mountain district, the most cheering news reaches us, and this District may be set down as certain for Seymour and Blair, and that gallant young champion of civil liberty and constitutional government, Plato Durham, for Congress.

The infamous attack of the Standard, on the white women of the State, is raising a storm of indignation among the people of this County. DYSARTSVILLE.

The black wretch who committed an outrageous assault on Mrs. Widman, a respectable white lady, living near Danbury, Conn., has been captured, identified and lodged in jail. His name is Guyon, is nineteen years old, and hails from Newbern, N. C.

Pennsylvania and Indiana.—We have seen letters from both these States, received in this city by the last mails, from reliable, well-informed, and careful sources, which are in the highest degree encouraging. We shall carry both these States in October by majorities not less, surely, than twenty thousand.—Wash. Express.

It is understood that A. S. Welsh, Michigan carpet bag Senator from Florida, having drawn his five thousand dollars salary, and mileage for seven hours service as United States Senator, has gone to Iowa, to assume the Presidency of an Agricultural College.

New Orleans, Oct. 1, P. M.

The new Board of Commissioners, under the Metropolitan police bill, composed of two negroes and three whites, have commenced their duties. One Lieutenant in the number, the oldest member of the force, has resigned.

In the House, on yesterday, two more whites from Baton Rouge were unseated and replaced by two negroes. The majority report of the election Committee states that the white men, whose seats were contested, were elected by seven hundred and fifty-eight majority, and the charges upon which the seats were contested were disproved.

The minority report, signed by two negroes, unseating the whites and seating the blacks, was adopted—27 to 15.

The State Democratic Conservative Convention convened, on yesterday, and organized, with full attendance, to-day.

For the Sentinel.

Seymour and Blair in Harnett.

Pursuant to a previous notice, the Conservative and Democratic citizens of Neill's Creek District, Harnett county, met at Jas. A. Johnson's Store, on Saturday, Sept. 26th, for the purpose of forming a Seymour and Blair Club.

The meeting temporarily organized by by calling J. S. Raboteau, Esq., to the Chair, and W. M. McNeill was appointed Secretary.

On motion, the Chairman appointed the following Committee to draft By-Laws and Resolutions for the meeting, viz: C. C. Barbee, Wm. Pearson, Jas. A. Sexton, D. E. Green and D. Stewart.

The Committee reported By Laws and Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, with an amendment by George W. Fentress, Esq.:

Resolved, That the English language is inadequate to express our indignation at the vile insult offered to the Southern ladies through the columns of the Radical organ.

The following gentlemen were then elected permanent officers of the Club: C. C. Barbee, Esq., President; D. E. Green, D. Stewart and Dr. A. D. Cutts, Vice Presidents; James A. Sexton, Recording Secretary; W. M. McNeill, Corresponding Secretary; Wm. Pearson, Treasurer.

The roll being prepared, eighty one names were enrolled.

On motion, it was resolved, that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Sentinel.

The meeting then adjourned, to meet the second Saturday in October.

C. C. BARBEE, President.

Jas. A. Sexton, Secretary.

Winchester Repeating Rifle!

TWO SHOTS A SECOND!!

The attention of Dealers and Sportsmen is invited to this improved weapon, now becoming extremely popular wherever it is known. Gen. Wade Hampton says of it:

"I regard the 'Winchester' as the most effective fire-arm I have ever seen. Its accuracy is remarkable, while its range and penetration equal any gun I have used. In my opinion, it is the best breech-loader yet invented."

Two sizes are made: A rifle, weighing nine and a-half pounds and carrying seven cen shots in magazine. Price $40.50. And a Carbine, weighing seven and a half pounds and carrying thirteen shots in magazine. Price $40. Cartridges $3 per hundred. Calibre of both arms is same as Colt's Army Pistol, 44-10 inch.

Ten per cent. discount on orders for 10 arms of a kind.

Sent by Express, C. O. D., on receipt of 20 per cent. of price. Liberal terms to dealers. For descriptive Circulars, &c., address

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION:

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except such as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the labo rer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of unjust and unconstitutional modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burdens of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to, and independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the Habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a conquered and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and is approved by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be grateful by remembered; and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause), in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It pulters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men every where, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL
WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and always conducted newspaper. THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Losses paid in 30 days. No restrictions on TRAVEL or RESIDENCE. No extra charge for Females. No charge for Medical Examination, Policies or Stamps.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11 751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taxing all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death.
